THE SOCIETY

FOR the past two years the students of the University of Virginia have been entertaining a number of charming house parties and giving a series of attractive German dinners at final, thus making the week as thoroughly delightful to visiting "calico" as only a college student knows how to do. This week will be one of the most successful commencements from a social standpoint since the days of one's older sister, when finals were superseded by the Easter parties.

The Delta Tau Delta Fraternity is entertaining a house party in honor of a number of the visiting girls and alumni, and the T. I. L. K. A. ribbon society is having a reunion; Germans every night, drives and tennis in the day and the most fascinating band on the rounds every afternoon, are some of the many charming events of the coming week at the university, and girls from all over the State have gone to Charlottesville to attend these functions. Some of them are: Miss Elizabeth Gaines, of Warrenton, Va.; Miss Margaret Gill, of Petersburg; Miss Elizabeth Lloyd, of Alexandria; Miss Katherine Brooks, of Norfolk; Miss Mary Brooke, of Norfolk; and Miss Lee Goode, of Baltimore.

Some of the Richmond men attending the Delta Tau Delta house party are Stuart Leake, John Cuthins, George Gregory and Aubin Boulware. For the T. I. L. K. A. reunion the following left yesterday afternoon: Herbert Claiborne, Addison Reynolds, John Wingo, Charles Watkins, London Wellford, Macdonald Wellford and several others who will leave to-morrow.

The German given Tuesday morning will be a very novel affair. It will be given by the Delta Tau Delta Fraternity in honor of their guests, and the favors will be most unique. Germans will also be given Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons by the German Club, and a number of little surprises and other informal affairs will fill the days.

House Party in Suffolk

An attractive event of next week will be a house party in Suffolk, Va., of which Misses Bess Holland, Theresa Nurney and Margaret Phillips will be hostesses. A series of beautiful entertainments will be given in honor of the guests, who will arrive on Saturday, June 18. They will be the guests of Miss Jeanne Cooke, of Roanoke, on her father's private car from Roanoke to Suffolk, and will include Misses Joanne Cooke, of Roanoke; Helen Steiner, of Montgomery; Alan Margaret Chewing and Lucy Witt, of Richmond; Rose and Sully Hayward, of New Orleans; Paxton and Davis, of Norfolk; Gladys Crane, of Fort Smith, Ark.

Miss Crane, who has been the guest of friends in Richmond for the past week, leaves this morning for Washington and Lee University, where she will be the guest of friends for finals. Miss Crane has been charmingly entertained at a number of informal affairs during her visit to Richmond.

Prominent Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Linn B. Enslow announce the engagement of their daughter, Eleanor Hamilton, to Captain William Gibbs Kable, of Staunton, Va. The bride-elect comes of a long line of distinguished ancestors, being a great granddaughter of the Rt. Rev. Richard Channing Moore, D. D., and granddaughter of Colonel William Harrison and related to the Gibsons, McDermids, Riverses and other prominent families of the State. Captain Kable is the son of Captain William H. Kable, president of the Staunton Military Academy, one of the most widely known and prominent educators of the South.

The wedding will be celebrated early in the month of August, and will be a leading social event.

To Motor Through New England.
Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gordon, Douglas Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. John Swartout and Miss Mabel Walker will be members of motor parties who expect to tour the lake shores of Chicago and various places in New England during the latter part of this month and several weeks in July.

House Party at "Woodland."
Dr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Taylor are entertaining a delightful house party at their attractive home, "Woodland," near Danville, Va., in honor of Miss J. J. Sutton, of Richmond. Bridge teas, luncheons and motor parties have been the order of the week.

On Saturday Mrs. Taylor entertained a large morning party in honor of Mrs. Sutton, of this city, and Miss James Green Waverly, of Danville. Bridge was played and attractive prizes awarded at each table. The guests included: Mesdames Charles Holland, B. B. Carrington, Rison Beadles, Spencer, Penn, Thomas, Irvin, Coons, Pace, Boatwright, Fuller, Wimbush, Patton, Meade, Cheatham, White, Wooding, Hughes, Edmunds, Ivy, Williamson and Goodwin.

Mrs. Taylor is pleasantly remembered here as Miss Grace Lee Grimes before her marriage.

Invitations Issued.
Mrs. Laura Shepherd Webb has issued cards for the marriage of her daughter, Laura, to Charles O'Brien Cowardin, Jr., of this city, the ceremony to take place Tuesday, June 21, in Richmond.

Guests of Miss West.
Miss Mildred Shaffer, of New Hampshire, and Mrs. R. H. McCaslin, of Kentucky, are visiting Miss Nannie West at her home, 1641 West Grace Street. Miss Shaffer was delegate to the convention of the Phi Mu Gamma Sorority, which met in Atlanta, and Mrs. McCaslin was formerly Miss Grace Pollard, of this city.

In honor of her house guests, Miss West was hostess of a very delightful "Chanticleer" party last Tuesday afternoon. The "Chanticleer" idea was prettily carried out in the decorations, and a very lively bird took an active part in the proceedings. Miss Margaret Crump served punch, and about forty guests were present.

To Make Address Sunday.
Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, president of the National Florence Crittenton Mission, will speak at the Christian Church this morning at 9:30 o'clock, and in the afternoon at 3:30 at the Seventh Street Christian Church. Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock she will address the Florence Crittenton Circle in the Y. W. C. A. building. At this meeting all members of the circle are requested to be present.

Mrs. Barrett, who has her present home in Alexandria, Va., has recently retired from California. She is one of the most prominent women in the State through her association with women's club movements. Her former residence in Richmond, where her husband was rector of Christ Church, gives her a large acquaintance here.

Golfing Abroad

Dr. Gurney Ryland and Mrs. Ryland, who spent last week in this city visiting their parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Ryland, at 339 West Grace Street, sailed from Boston Thursday for a three month tour of Europe. Dr. Ryland is a graduate of Richmond College and the Johns Hopkins University, and holds the chair of chemistry in Georgetown College, Kentucky.

Miss Rebecca Gilkeson, of Staunton, sailed June 4 for an extended tour of the continent by way of the Mediterranean. She expects to return late in the fall. Miss Edna Kilgus and Miss Caldwell, also of Staunton, expect to sail on Tuesday morning to spend a year traveling abroad.

Dr. James Lewis Howe, of Washington and Lee University, accompanied by Miss Gwendolyn Howe, sailed last week for Europe. They will go at once to Scotland, where Dr. Howe will attend the World's Missionary Conference held in Edinburgh. They will visit several places of interest on the continent before returning to Lexington, Va.

Woman's Club

Tea will be served at the Woman's Club every Monday afternoon from 5 to 8 o'clock until further notice.

Vesper Service

Dr. W. C. James, pastor of Grove Avenue Baptist Church, will address the vesper service of the Young Woman's Christian Association at their Country Club, Richmond Hall, Union Theological Seminary, at 6 o'clock this afternoon. A special musical program has been arranged for this occasion, and the public is cordially invited to attend. Supper will be served at the conclusion of the service, and the hospitality of the association will be extended to all present.

Services last Sunday afternoon were not held on account of the weather.

Nature Study Class

The Young Woman's Christian Association will shortly give an opportunity to a small party of young women and men to enjoy some charming nature studies under the direction of Professor Charles Winston. All who are interested are cordially invited to join the class, and it is expected that the series of charming afternoons spent among the trees and flowers will prove most delightful to those who will have the privilege of joining the class on its rambles through the woods and fields.

Reception Wednesday Evening

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kirsh will be hosts of an informal reception Wednesday evening, June 15, from 8 to 11 o'clock at their residence, 10 East Clay Street, in honor of their daughter, Miriam, whose marriage to Edmund Kahn will take place the following day. A happy and pleasing feature of the marriage is that June 16 commemorates the seventy-first birthday of Mrs. Hannah Strauss, the grandmother of the bride-elect.

Closing Recital

On Monday afternoon, June 6, at half-past 4 o'clock, the closing recital of Miss Effie Coffey's musical class was given in her studio, 292 East Franklin Street. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion in bowls of pink roses, and an attractive program was rendered to an audience composed of the friends of the pupils.

Forstmann-Snead

The wedding of Miss Gertrude V. Snead and Harry J. Forstmann was celebrated very quietly, owing to mourning in the bride's family, at 812 West Main Street, last Monday morning at 11 o'clock. Father O'Reilly, of the Sacred Heart Cathedral, officiating. The bride is a daughter of the late Alderman Evan Snead, and the groom is a son of Dr. H. G. Forstmann, of this city, and is connected with the American Tobacco Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Forstmann left immediately after the ceremony to spend their honeymoon in the Bermuda Islands, and on their return will make their home in this city.

Trice-Lacy

A very pretty marriage was solemnized at Smyrna Baptist Church Wednesday evening, June 8, when Miss Lena Linwood Lacy, of Rock Castle, Va., became the bride of J. A. Trice, of Haden'sville, Va. The church was beautifully decorated in potted plants, ferns, white and pink roses. Promptly at 2 o'clock the doors of the church were thrown open, and the strains of the march from "Lohengrin" sweetly rendered by Miss Lois Trice, a sister of the groom, announced the arrival of the bridal party. MARTIN SUPPLY CO., Box 378, Richmond, Va.

were J. A. Kean, of Balham, Va., and Vernon Hicks, of West View, Va. The bridesmaids, daintily dressed in white mull, ribbons and laces, carrying bouquets of daisies and ferns tied with white ribbon, entered in the following order: J. C. Trice, of Richmond, with Miss Grace Lacy, sister of the bride; Brandt Bagby, of Richmond, with Miss Ella Trice, of Haden'sville, Va.; R. L. Hicks, of Rock Castle, with Miss Mary Parrish, of Haden'sville; Horace Catlett, of Richmond, with Miss Olive Hicks, of West View, Va. The maid of honor, Miss Snow Lacy, sister of the bride, was handsomely gowned in white silk and carried a large bouquet of pink carnations. The bride, becomingly attired in a blue cloth travelling suit with hat to match, and carrying a bouquet of Bride roses, entered with her brother, E. W. Lacy, who gave her away. They were met at the altar by the groom and his brother, R. A. Trice, best man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. A. Cave, of Bowling Green, Va.

The bride is the daughter of W. C. Lacy, of Rock Castle, Va., and the groom is a son of R. A. Trice, of Haden'sville, Va., and is connected with the Roberts & Hoge Shoe Company, in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Trice left at once for a Northern tour, returning by way of Natural Bridge and Luray Cave.

To Wed Quietly

Owing to illness in the family, Mrs. Allan Talbot has recalled the invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Miss Florence R. Talbot, to Dr. John P. Davidson, which was to have taken place Tuesday evening, June 14, in the Grace Street Presbyterian Church. The wedding will take place very quietly in the home of the bride Tuesday, in the presence of the immediate family.
